

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT.

ROMANTIC WEDDING AT THE CHAMBERLIN

Robert M. Beattie and Mrs. Fulmer, Prominent Tennesseans, Bride and Groom.

GEN. STEPHEN D. LEE BEST MAN

Ceremony Performed by Rev. J. F. Cuthrell in "Blue Parlor" With Party of Notables Present—Couple Had Been in Richmond Attending Reunion.

One of the prettiest weddings that has occurred in the Chamberlin Hotel at Old Point in years took place in the "Blue Parlor" at 6:15 o'clock yesterday evening, when Mrs. Corinne Mansfield Fulmer became the bride of Mr. Robert Marya Beattie. The bride and groom are prominent society people of Memphis, Tenn., and their marriage will be a great surprise to their friends in Tennessee.

General Stephen D. Lee, commander of the Grand Camp, United Confederate Veterans, was the best man at the wedding. General Lee's home is in Columbia, S. C., but he is at Old Point for a few days before returning to South Carolina from the reunion in Richmond.

Captain Young, of Mississippi, was one of the attendants. The bride was attended by Miss Corinne Roberts, of Searcy, Ark., as maid of honor, and Miss Bessie Robertson, of Searcy, Ark., as bridesmaid. Ensign Tupple Lytle, of the United States battleship Kentucky, was a groomsman.

Rev. J. F. Cuthrell, pastor of Central Methodist church, officiated, performing the ceremony according to the ritual of his church.

Mrs. Fulmer was Miss Corinne Mansfield, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mansfield, of Memphis. Mr. Beattie is a prominent attorney of the Tennessee city and he and his bride are prominent in their home town. The entire party had been in Richmond attending the reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Beattie left Old Point last night for a short visit in the north and will later go to their home in Memphis.

RETAIL GROCER MEN LEAVE FOR HOME

They Take Dinner at the Chamberlain and Board Special Steamers.

The members of the Boston Retail Grocers' Association were very much in evidence in Hampton, at the Normal School and Soldiers Home, and especially at Old Point, yesterday. The afternoon was spent seeing various points of interest in this section, the finishing touches being added at a dinner at the Chamberlain in the evening.

After visiting old St. John's church in Hampton and seeing the many other places of interest, the party arrived at Old Point. About 250 gentlemen and 175 ladies composed the party. They had special cars of the Newport News and Old Point Railway at their disposal and when they began to inspect the fort and to arrive at the Chamberlain they attracted considerable attention.

After dining at the Chamberlain they left for Washington, the Norfolk and Washington line providing special steamers for their use. Today will be spent in the capital city, after

OLD FAMILY TROUBLE AIRED IN THE COURT

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hunt Tell the Mayor How it Happened.

Curtis Hunt, a former resident of Poquoson, York county, was before Mayor Jones yesterday morning, charged with trespass. Wednesday night Mr. Hunt's wife rushed into the residence of Attorney Geo. W. Field in Wine street, screaming at the top of her voice, and closely followed by her husband. The negro attorney, who is blind, did not know what was up, and straightway ordered the pair to leave the premises. Both of the parties tried to explain matters, but with very little success, and while the explanations were being made the attorney was insisting that the parties leave. Their failure to do so resulted in his lodging a complaint of trespass against Mr. Hunt.

When the case came up before the mayor yesterday morning the charge of trespass had to take the side track for an interesting family tale of woe, which Mr. and Mrs. Hunt seemed anxious to relate.

The family is well known in Poquoson, where they have resided for a number of years. Several months ago Mrs. Hunt came to the conclusion that her husband was spending too much of his earnings for liquor, and thought that his treatment of her and her children at his hands when he came home intoxicated was not just what she had a right to expect, and while he was away from home she took her children and what clothing she could carry, and came to Hampton without notice or warning.

For some months she has been living in Victoria avenue, near Lordley's crossing. Soon after his wife left him Mr. Hunt came to Hampton and secured employment at Hall's railway, and when he learned that his wife was so near him he sought the assistance of friends hoping to induce his wife to return. Up to a short time ago his references to her have been of a most complimentary nature, but recently there have been some developments that made him suspicious, and his jealousy was aroused.

Wednesday night he found her in town in company with a youth and he followed them for some time unnoticed. Nothing happened until Mrs. Hunt discovered, while in Wine street, that her husband was on her trail, and she feared that in his anger he would do her and her escort bodily harm, and then something did happen. The Mayor dismissed the charge of trespass and after giving the pair some excellent advice, sent them on their way. Several people have made an effort to heal the family sore, but the new light thrown on the case yesterday morning will result in the man and his wife being left to arrange the affair to their own liking.

Will Entertain the Duke.
Mrs. Harry St. George Tucker will entertain the Duke de Abruzzi at dinner at the Chamberlain hotel Saturday evening. The event promises to be a very pleasant affair in social circles at the Point.

Negro Masons' Officers.
Eastern Star Lodge of Colored Masons has elected the following officers for the coming term: Worshipful master, John Lattimore; senior warden, B. F. Freeman; junior warden, A. L. Mavin; secretary, Robert Cusick; treasurer, J. W. Williams; senior deacon, J. Williams; junior deacon, H. Armistead.

Negro Woman Insane.
Emma Taylor, a negro woman, was taken to jail yesterday and will be given a hearing before a commission of lunacy to test the condition of her mind today.

MRS. KAISER DIES SUDDENLY.

Aged Lady of Phoebus Passes Away at Son's Home.

Mrs. Christiana Kaiser, 65 years old, died in the home of her son, Mr. E. C. Kaiser, in Mellen street, Phoebus, shortly after the noon hour yesterday. Mrs. Kaiser had been sick for some time, but the end came as a shock to her family, as she had been improving slightly in the past few days. The funeral services will be conducted from the residence of Mr. Kaiser this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock and tonight the remains will be taken to Washington for burial.

Mrs. Kaiser was a well known worker in the Episcopal church and was highly esteemed by a large circle of acquaintances in Hampton, Phoebus and Old Point. She came to Phoebus many years ago from Washington. She is survived by four children—Mr. E. C. Kaiser, of Phoebus; Mrs. Yeabower, of Lightfoot, Va.; Mrs. T. J. Belt, of Washington, and Miss Bertha Kaiser, of Phoebus.

The pall bearers will be as follows: Messrs. E. M. Tennis, C. E. Welsh, C. C. Mugler, A. M. Hanger, Charles W. Seymour and W. G. Morris.

Charge of Assault Dismissed.

Peter Augustales, the Greek fruit vendor, who was arrested on the charge of whipping a negro boy named Leonard Burke, was before Mayor Thornton F. Jones yesterday morning. The boy, who made the complaint, did not appear against the fruit vendor and the case was dismissed, and now the police are looking for Leonard as the costs of the court were charged up against him.

FOR TREASURER.

To the Voters of Elizabeth City County:

I shall be a candidate for treasurer of the county in the general election to be held on Tuesday, November 4, and I will appreciate most cordially your support. I am not running as a candidate of any political party, clique or organization, but shall submit my claims to the people, believing that it is the voters who must decide who shall serve them in their offices of trust. Seventeen years in the office gave me a training that certainly fits me for the position, and if I am again elected to the position it will be my aim to treat all of the people as I did while in office. 6-5-tf JESSE S. JONES.
